

3 February 2022

Dear Parents/Caregivers

In 2022, students from Prep to Year 6 will have the opportunity to attend JAG on either a Tuesday or Thursday morning.

This year we will be participating in/learning the following:-

- Logan City Council World Environment Day Competition
- Ekka's Hi-Line Brown Schools Egg Laying Competition
- Farm safety and first aid
- Basic Paddock to Plate
- Basic animal husbandry
- Basic horticulture

In order to help to cover the costs of running our JAG program in 2022 and to contribute towards our farm, a one off fee for the whole year of $80.00 is payable by each student. As part of this fee, your child will receive a copy of our Calvary Agriculture Yearbook. The Yearbook will include many photos taken at JAG throughout the year. You will be invoiced for this amount once your request to participate is received so please do not send in any payment in advance.

The staff who will be helping to facilitate JAG in 2022 are:-

Tuesday Morning and Lunch
Mrs Angela Haupt
Mrs Lisa Bullas
Mrs Casey Dickson

Thursday
Mrs Angela Haupt
Mrs Lisa Bullas
Mrs Vanessa Begbie

Students meet at the Cunningham Pavilion and are walked down to the farm by staff. Gumboots are optional; however, they do help on the mornings after a heavy dew.

If your child would like to participate in JAG, please complete the attached form and return it to Student Reception via your classroom teacher as soon as possible. Numbers will be capped at 30 students each day. If you are flexible on the day that your child attends, please select both days on the attached form. This will enable us to ensure that as many students as possible can attend.

Should you require any information in relation to JAG, please do not hesitate to contact myself via email at angela.haupt@calvarycc.qld.edu.au or call the College on 3287 6222.

Kind regards

Angela Haupt
Farm Manager
